DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claims 14-23, 25, and 26, drawn to immunological method for measuring activation status of neutrophils and kit therefor.

Group II, claim 24, drawn to diagnostic method for detection of a disease.

Group III, claims 27-31, drawn to method of screening compounds that interact with myeloperoxidase.

The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: Group I, Group II, and Group III are distinct methods in that Group I obtains a sample containing neutrophils or myeloperoxidase (MPO) released by neutrophils, then captures MPO and measures active MPO to obtain a measure of the activation status of neutrophils; Group II determines the activation status of neutrophils and determines a concentration that provides indications of several diseases or conditions; and Group III combines unknown compounds with MPO captured from a biological sample and measures the amount of MPO activity to determine immunomodulation capacity of the compounds to the neutrophils.

2. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species and subspecies of uses:

- A) detect diseases or conditions:
 - Chronic or acute inflammatory disease

- Digestive disease, intestinal pathology
 - Sepsis or septic shock
 - Chronic or acute pulmonary disease
 - Ischemia-reperfusion
 - articular pathology
 - allergy
 - infection
 - cardiovascular disease.
- B) assess neutrophil activation therapy
- C) assess immunogenicity of neutrophils
- D) evaluate efficacy of immunomodulators
- E) screen and select compounds having MPO activity
- F) distinguish between total and active MPO content in a sample.

The species and subspecies are independent or distinct because claims to the different species and subspecies recite the mutually exclusive characteristics of such species. In addition, these species are not obvious variants of each other based on the current record.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species and subspecies for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 14-31 are generic.

There is an examination and search burden for these patentably distinct species and subspecies due to their mutually exclusive characteristics. The different species and subspecies require a different field of search (e.g., searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries); and/or the prior art applicable to one species would not likely be applicable to another species; and/or the species are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and/or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

The election of the species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the election of species requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected species.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the species unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other species.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141.

3. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Art Unit: 1641
